GEN. WRIGHT IN TALK HERE, FAVORS GREAT RESERVE ARMY

Asks Support For Gen. Pershing's Proposal

POINTS TO 1914

Wants People To Be Ready For "Next War"

Active support of a reserve force to supplement the United States Regular Army in times of emergency was asked for by Major-General William M. Wright yesterday at a tiffin at the Carlton at which he was the guest of honor of the Gen. Frederick Ward Post of the American Legion. General Wright is Commanding Officer of the Department of the Philippines and the American forces in China and is passing through Shanghai on a visit of inspection to the 15th Infantry at Tientsin.

In the course of his address he gave what he called a message from General Pershing. In addition to about 75 members of the Shanghai Post of the American Legion others present were Mr. E. S. Cunningham, American Consul-General and Maj. John Lee, General Wright's Aide.

PEOPLE RESPONSIBLE

"Before the war I was behind the scenes in the War Department," General Wright said, "and we old soldiers were working day and night for what we knew was the inevitable war. Yet we could get nothing done. Some blamed us, and some blamed Congress, but the responsibility for the lack of preparation rested, as it will rest when the next war comes, on the people of the United States.

"The American people were negligent in not being prepared for war, and that is why the great war cost us twenty-four billions of dollars, and why the next war is likely to cost us an even greater sum. We never have had a military policy in the United States but have led a hand-to-mouth existence. And now we are going back to the same position we were in eight years ago.

"We want no more war but we must be prepared for fear war does come again. If I had told you in 1913 than within four years we would have 2,600,000 troops fighting the Germans you would have cried 'Lock him up, the damn fool's crazy.' Now we are looking forward to a long period of peace. I hope we have it. I am not a militarist. No army man is. They all desire peace.

ASKS FOR SUPPORT

"General Pershing thinks, however, that all Americans should carry on for a reasonable preparation for war. The Act of June 4, 1920, which provided for a standing army of 280,000 (which has now been cut to 125,000) also provided for a national guard and an organised reserve. The standing army is small, and because of the peculiar political conditions existing in the various states it is hard to depend on the national guard. Some states have good units, others have poor ones.

"The organised reserves are divided into nine corps districts. A comprehensive plan for their operation has all been worked out and the overhead is all there so that when the next war comes, if it does, we will be prepared to handle the drafted men as they pour in.

"You who have served should carry the torch and keep the organised reserves going so that when your sons or your grandsons go to war they will not be unprepared as you were."

Rice Up 50 Cents Because Of Floods

The price of rice jumped suddenly fifty cents per picul in the Shanghai market on Tuesday. Dealers explained that the increase was due to the flooded condition of the creeks, which made it impossible to bring the rice down to market.

CANTON'S WIRE TO PEKING STIRS GREAT INTEREST

Public Bodies Pass Resolution Asking Sun To Resign

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, July 5.—The Canton Provincial Assembly's telegram has aroused very wide interest in Peking. Various public bodies, including the educational associations and representatives of the United Chambers of Commerce, have passed a resolution to telegraph to Dr. Sun Yat-sen expressing their appreciation of Dr. Sun's meritorious services in protecting the Law, but adding that, since the Old Parliament has been reinstated, the time has come to dissolve the transitional Government and abolish the provisional Presidency.

Peking, July 5.—According to telegrams from Canton, chaos continues to reign there. Dr. Sun Yat-sen remains at Whampoa and is endeavoring to reunite the scattered elements still supporting his cause, but there is no leader able to unite Dr. Sun's followers while General Chen Chiung-ming has given orders to oppose General Hsu Chung-chih's passage to the South.

Peking, July 5.—Members of Parliament continue to arrive and another 30 Senators would give a quorum to that House.

Crown Colonies Policy Approved

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 5.—Commenting on the Crown Colonies, the Daily Chronicle deems the policy sound by which loans were raised in the British market for the development of work during the past year. The danger to be guarded against, it says, is saddling the Colonies with too heavy taxation, which, in many cases, is already very heavy. An indefinite increase would have political as well as economic effects. A serious attempt to realise economies on actual administration should accompany increased expenditure on development. The paper says that there is considerable scope under the Colonial Office for the peripatetic, Sir Erric Geddes.

DESTROYERS LEAVE; HURON TO GO MONDAY

Bulk Of American Fleet Gets Away For Summer Cruise

Only two American warships, the U. S. S. Huron, flagship of the American Asiatic Fleet, and the U. S. S. Isabel, flagship of the Yangtsze patrol force, remain in Shanghai today following the general exodus yesterday of the sixteen destroyers which had been in port here since June 6.

The destroyer divisions, accompanied by their mother ship, the U. S. S. Buffalo, weighed anchor at 9 o'clock yesterday morning, and, after assembling off Woosung, started for Chefoo for summer manœuvers. They are expected to arrive in Chefoo late today, as they are making the journey north at their cruishing speed of fifteen knots.

The U. S. S. Huron will remain in port here until Monday, when it sails for Nagasaki to greet Secretary of the Navy Edwin S. Denby, who is now visiting in Japan. The stay of the Isabel has not been definitely decided.

In addition to the destroyer divisions, the U. S. S. Albany, which put in here from Chinwangtao, sailed yesterday for home by way of Guam and Honolulu. The Albany is to be dismantled under the terms of the agreement on limitation of naval armaments.

One Of Every 20 Russians Now Has Government Job

(Reuter's Service)

Moscow, May 15.—Over four million and a half people, exclusive of the Red army and navy, draw their living direct from governmental sources in Russia, and this in spite of the recent dismissal of 3,090,000 such employees. Nor do these figures cover the Ukraine, with its 30,000,000 people; the Far Eastern Republic, with perhaps 10,000,000, and the governments of Trans-Caucasus, Bokhara and Turkestan. These statistics mean, says the newspaper Economic Life, that one out of every 20 persons in Russia has a government job, not counting soldiers and sailors. The new budget will reduce the number of governmental employees still further to 3,300,000.

Of the 4,571,000 still employed, the Supreme Economic Council, which operates a number of factories, pays 1,630,000. Railroads come next with 960,000, and the department of education has 420,000. In the State Political Police there are 105,000, and in the uniformed police 160,000.

The 3,000,000 recently discharged, deprived of government rations, have had to turn to the open markets to secure their sustenance.

Cabinet Shake-Up Denied In London

(Reuter's Service)

(Reuter's Service)

Mexico City, June 4.—Oil exportations from Mexico during the year 1921 totalled approximately 195,000,000 barrels as against 153,000,000 barrels in 1920, according to figures published recently by the Department of Finance. Taxes from this exportation netted the Mexican Government more than 50,000,000 pesos.

Sorry!

In the CHINA PRESS of June 29 it was reported that I had recommended the appointment of Mr. David Z. T. Yui as minister of education. This is incorrect, as I did not make any such recommendation, nor am I in a position to do so.

(Signed) C. T. Wang

The item in question was published in THE CHINA PRESS as a translation from one of the local Chinese newspapers, which apparently was misinformed.

Struggling Waitress Made Rich By Oil Strike

IN a small tumble-down shack at Santa Fe Springs, Cal., little Elva was born. When her father died she inherited the dismal place. Later she married Leslie Beers, but all her life it has been a struggle to make both ends meet, and she was working as a waitress to help her husband out. A few days ago a stranger entered the Cozy Inn (?), where she worked, and said: "I have found oil on your place. I will give you $15,000 cash, pay all the expense of drilling and operating and give you a sixth interest in all I make." The promoters declare she will be rich soon.

Dyers' Strike Is Settled; Demands For Increase Fail

The strike of dyers which has been in progress here for some days past has been settled. The increase in wages demanded has not been granted, but the employers have made other concessions. The number of apprentices employed will be increased so as to lighten the work of the assistants, who, at the beginning of each month, will be paid a commission which will average eight cents for each article dyed. Hitherto, the commission was paid the employes at irregular intervals and the rate was not fixed.

Cotton Shortage In Mexico Likely

(Reuter's Service)

DENBY GUEST OF TOKIO PREMIER AT LUNCHEON

Kato Welcomes American Naval Chief; Sees Good Omens

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 4.—Premier Kato today gave a grand luncheon at his official residence in honor of Navy Secretary Edwin Denby, the United States Secretary of the Navy, and the party, which was also attended by all Cabinet Ministers and in the course of which Premier Kato gave the following address of welcome:

"That you have visited Japan in so short a time after the conclusion of several important Treaties and agreements between Japan and the United States and between the Powers, is very significant and whoever the Premier of Japan may be, he deems it a great honor to have the opportunity of welcoming you in our country.

"Especially for me, I cannot help feeling particularly and individually pleasant and happy. I, who had occasion to observe your esteemed country and to make acquaintance with leading members of your country during my busy but delightful four months' stay at the session of the Washington Conference, have always in my memory the kindness shown to me by your fellow-country men, the object your country has in view, and the loftiness and greatness of your country.

"As to the Japanese people, despite your short stay, you will, I feel confident, be able to perceive personally the fact that they hold frankness and friendship in high esteem and that they are inclined to liberalism. Such being the case, it is naturally against the instinct of our people to refuse the pacific and friendly co-operation in which your country proposed to act to the whole world.

"The people of Japan heartily hope to maintain and further the existing friendly relations between Japan and the United States. It is indeed an excellent idea that Admiral Uryu has invited to Japan his class-mates of the Annapolis Naval Academy. I feel most happy and grateful, gentlemen, that the United States Secretary of the Navy himself has joined your tourist party to Japan and that Admiral Strauss has met you here."

RIVER JORDAN TO BE HARNESSED BY RUSSIAN ENGINEER

(Reuter's Service)

Jerusalem, May 12.—Much of the material that is to be used in the work of developing the hydrauling power of the falls of the Jordan, near the Sea of Galilee, will be acquired from German firms. Their prices are said to be one-half those of British houses, and considerably below those of American bidders.

The plan includes the construction of a dam on the Jordan River at the point where it issues from the Sea of Galilee; a large storage reservoir; irrigation canals, and the installation of electric generating stations. American-Jewish organisations are said to be largely interested in the project.

The contract has been awarded to Pinhas Butenberg, a Russian engineer, by the British government. Mr. Butenberg is now in the United States seeking financial support for the project. The work will involve an expenditure of $10,000,000 and the employment of 8,000 men. The Russian contractor also will undertake to draw electric power from the Auja River to light the ancient city of Jaffa and the communities of Tel Aviv, Ramleh and Petach Tikveh. He is allowed two years in which to raise the capital and start operations.

NATIONALS IN IRELAND GRADUALLY WINNING OUT

Several Irregular Garrisons Are Captured

FIGHT IN DUBLIN

Smoke Bombs Used To Cover Attacks On Rebels

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 4.—A communique issued in Dublin states that there has been substantial progress in the country districts and all the important centers in the Midlands are now held by the National Army, including Kilkenny, Athlone, Mullingar, Longford, Trim, and Nenagh.

The local volunteers assisted the National Army in expelling the irregulars from the roads to Clonmel where the latter are concentrated in a mined and entrenched position. These irregulars have resorted to conscription.

The National forces have secured further successes in Donegal. They have captured a number of irregular garrisons and are controlling all approaches by land and sea, making it impossible to reinforce the irregulars in the Letterkenny-Raphow area.

There was an extraordinary incident at Glenfarn Barracks in Leitrim close to the six-County border, where the garrison of National troops was attacked simultaneously by irregulars and Ulster special police from different directions and was compelled to yield to the combined force.

London, July 4.—There was heavy fighting during the forenoon in Dublin. The National forces employed smoke-bombs to cover their rushes against the O'Connell Street stronghold into which they hurled grenades. Simultaneously armored-cars kept up a heavy machinegun fire against the buildings, the few defenders of which were compelled frequently to change their positions by means of tunnels in order to concentrate their defence at particular points. O'Connell Street is identical with Sackville Street.

Virginia Town Pays Homage To Famous Indian Princess

(Reuter's Service)

Jamestown, Va., June 3.—Homage was paid here today to the Indian Princess Pocahontas, savior of Captain John Smith and firm friend of the first English settlers in America. Eight of her descendants, 3 little girls and five boys, took part in the ceremony, which centered about the presentation of an eight-foot bronze figure of the daughter of Powhatan to the Association for Preservation of Virginia Antiquities by Miss Ella Lorraine Dorset on behalf of the Pocahontas Memorial Association of which she is president. The statue was accepted for the Virginia Association by Dr. Lyon G. Tyler, son of the late Presider John Tyler.

Rain marred the program, speakers and guests being forced to find protection under umbrellas and other temporary shelter during the abbreviated service. The children, who were to have unveiled the statue were prevented from carrying out their part by the downpour. Tobacco, symbolic of the homage of the Rappahannock tribe of the Algonquin Confederacy, which was ruled by Powhatan, was laid at the feet of the figure by Robert H. Clarke (Big Heart), the present representative of the nation. The bronze, wrought by William Ordway Partridge, reveals the Indian heroine with arms outstretched to welcome the colonists.

CHINESE ENVOY AT LONDON URGES SCHOLARSHIPS

Charge d'Affaires Speaks At Presentation To Dr. Giles

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 5.—Mr. Chu Tao-hsin, proposing a vote of thanks to Lord Chalmers, Chairman of the Royal Asiatic Society, on the occasion of the presentation of the Triennial Gold Medal to Dr. Herbert Giles, Professor of Chinese at the University of Cambridge, eulogised Professor Giles's great work on behalf of China. The Chinese Charge d'Affaires declared that there were at present far too few students of the Chinese language and therefore ancient Chinese literature, history and philosophy must largely remain an unknown field.

Mr. Chu expressed the opinion that one of the chief difficulties was the inability of students who were obliged to earn their own living at the same time to devote themselves wholeheartedly to the study of the language of the Chinese people. He was therefore very keenly interested in the suggestion that the British Government should earmark certain sums of money derived from the Far East for promoting Anglo-Chinese education and thereby foster a better understanding between the peoples of the East and West.

Tokio, July 4.—In spite of numerous appeals from the residents of the Chientao district for military assistance, the Cabinet today decided not to send troops to the disturbed area.

It is stated that there are at present 500 police in the district and the Korean Government is prepared to send more if needed but it is believed that order can be maintained by those already there together with the Chinese troops.

Wild rumors are prevalent but it is stated that most of the Japanese residents have already been withdrawn to safety.

Big 4th Of July Fete At Nanking

(China Press Correspondence)

Nanking, July 4.—Mr. John K. Davis, American Consul in Nanking, was host this afternoon to the men of the community at a very enjoyable gathering held at the Consulate. Military Governor Chi Shi-yuan, Civil Governor Wang Hu, and other prominent Chinese officials, as well as British Consul J. T. Pratt and the Japanese Consul were present.

Mr. Davis, in a brief speech, complimented the Military Governor for the order that has been preserved throughout the province during the year and ended by asking all to join with him in toasting the United States. Governors Chi and Wang both responded in felicitous vein, their speeches being translated by Mr. Wen Pei-shan, the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs.

In the course of his speech, Governor Chi referred to the coming departure of Governor Wang, who has been transferred to Shantung. In his place, Mr. Han Gwoa Dzwin, who was Governor of Kiangsu some years ago, a native of the province, and a man of ability, is to come to Nanking as Civil Governor.

(Dalta News Agency)

Harbin, June 30.—Scores of cases of robbery and murder of Chinese residents in Vladivostok are registered. Protests of the Chinese Consul are useless, as Merkuloff's government is helpless to criminal elements and moreover the government's policy is characterised by illegal taxes on the Chinese.

Court Dismisses Elmont's Charges Against Mrs. Priest

Charges of assault that were made against Mrs. W. J. Priest by Mr. W. J. Elmont were dismissed yesterday by Magistrate G. W. King in the British Police Court at the conclusion of a somewhat lengthy hearing.

According to the testimony given the complainant had reproved his wife for addressing Mrs. Priest and this led to a wordy controversy after which Mrs. Priest called upon a Chinese police officer to arrest Elmont.

Three young girls who happened to be playing in the Quinsan Gardens on June 25, when Mr. Elmont rebuked his wife for speaking to the defendant, gave evidence. They all stated that Elmont told Mrs. Elmont: "Did I not tell you not to talk to that dirty bad woman." All three said they witnessed the whole incident and denied that Mrs. Priest ever touched or pushed Elmont.

Mr. P. Murray, a witness for the prosecution, said he arrived at that scene at the latter part of the incident. He did not see Mrs. Priest assault or touch Elmont. Mrs. Priest appeared to be very excited and tore up a piece of paper which complainant was handing to the Chinese policeman with his name and address.

London, July 4.—Inquiries made at Oldham regarding the recent Japanese order to Messrs. Platts for spindles for China elicit the information that the figure, originally given out and commented on in the Manchester Guardian, namely 1,063,000, is, to say the least, much exaggerated. HOW TO "GROW" A NEW COMPLEXION

These are the days of "hustling." In a week we see and do more than our grandmothers did in a year. We are gradually turning nature to be our servant; we use her great forces against herself. We have conquered sea and sky, now our doctors are fighting not only disease, but old age. There is talk of rejuvenating human beings by the injection of animal glands, but as yet, only the few can avail themselves of the treatment.

There is, however, one secret of perpetual youth that is in the reach of everyone. Scientists now realise that the only way of keeping the skin young and fresh is to examine Nature's methods and to find some way of imitating her.

SCIENTIFIC BEAUTY.

In order to explain the new method of keeping the complexion perpetually youthful, one must understand something of the nature of the skin. A baby's skin is always clear and smooth because the outer layer is always invisibly peeling off, and new layers are forming just as fast underneath, so that the exposed skin is always fresh, unwrinkled and "new."

For the first few years of our lives, this peeling is a purely natural process, but as we grow older, we gradually lose the power of throwing off our old soiled outer skins, so that our complexions become lined and yellow, and the new skin has no chance to show itself.

A few years ago, a scientific chemist realised that a little-known substance called mercolised wax, was exactly what was needed to "keep nature up to the mark." It appears that this substance, which is now universally obtainable, gently and painlessly assists nature in throwing off the soiled outer cuticle. The skin is thus perpetually renewed, and a clear youthful complexion can be preserved to any age. (Advt.)

Colonial Chief Compliments Malaya

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 4.—In the House of Commons today Mr. E. L. Wood, Under-Secretary for the Colonies, introducing the Colonial Office estimates, dwelt on the Colonial Empire's debt of gratitude to the Prince of Wales whose self-sacrificing devotion it was impossible to exaggerate. He emphasised the difficult period through which all the Colonies were passing, notably Malaya, the West Indies and all the African Colonies, but as a result of special efforts they were succeeding in balancing their budgets.

The depression was notably prevalent in Malaya owing to the condition of the rubber industry. There was no part of the Empire for which the House should feel warmer sympathy (Cheers). Malaya in her days of prosperity gave generously to the Motherland (Cheers). Mr. Wood said that he wished that he could say that he saw an issue out of her present difficulties but he was afraid that they depended rather on general world recovery.

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 4.—At the annual meeting of the Shell Transport and Trading Company today at Cannon Street Hotel, the Chairman, Mr. Walter Samuel, after referring to the decreases, mentioned in the annual report, as to be expected in a year of industrial depression, said that it had been rumored that the large amount of money they raised recently was for a fighting fund.

He was unaware whence the rumor originated but it was certainly not from the Board which did not desire and did not intend to fight anyone.

They had raised the money with the intention of employing it usefully in forwarding the Company's business.

"I have all the life insurance I want."

"LET us see. Your salary is six thousand dollars a year. You carry ten thousand dollars insurance, and you say that it is all you want. If you had a building worth a hundred thousand dollars, and if it were bringing you an income of six thousand dollars a year net, how much fire insurance would you carry on it? You wouldn't be satisfied with ten thousand dollars, would you? You would take a hundred thousand dollars if you could get it but you probably couldn't get over eighty thousand dollars. Then don't be satisfied with ten thousand dollars life insurance, for the situations are exactly alike."

Tokio Living Up To Terms Of Disarmament Treaties

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 4.—With regard to the rumor that the Japanese Navy, taking advantage of the defects of the Navy Treaty concluded at the Washington conference regarding the restriction of cruisers and auxiliary warships, contemplates establishing such equipments as are incompatible with the pacific spirit of the Washington Conference, the Japanese naval authorities, absolutely denying the rumor, state as follows:

"It goes without saying that Japan has resolved to observe strictly provisions laid down by the Washington Conference, restricting the construction not only of main warships and aeroplane tenders but also of all kinds of auxiliary warships. The plan of forming the squadron of eight battle-ships and eight battle-cruisers, which was approved by the Diet, comprised the following warships to be completed by the 15th Year of Taisho (1927).

"Cruisers: Since the completion of the Tenryu and the Tatsuta those which have been completed, or ordered, are 17 in number and those which have not yet been ordered are nine in number, amounting to 26 cruisers, 146,750 tons in all.

"Destroyers: Since the completion of the Makaze, the Tanikaze, the Nara and the Kawa those which have been already completed or ordered are seven in number, the first-class destroyers, which have not yet been ordered, are 22 and the second-class destroyers 15 in number, amounting to 48 destroyers 102,566 tons.

98 SUBMARINES ONLY

"Submarines: Those, which have been already completed or ordered, are 47 in number, and those which have not yet been ordered, are 46 amounting to 93 submarines in all, 82,852 tons.

"The warships, which are included in the above list being full of defects in their types, the Japanese Navy has a plan now to reduce the number already fixed, to enlarge the types of warships in some measure, taking into consideration the demands of the times, and to abolish old warships as rapidly as possible so that a big sum may be saved. Though the new plan has not yet been definitely decided upon, it is something like the following.

"It will plainly be seen from the foregoing figures that the rumor that the Japanese Navy has formed a plan to expand its squadron of auxiliary warships since the termination of the Washington Conference is absolutely without foundation. Furthermore, as these men-of-war are to be completed by degrees in the next six years according to financial circumstance, it will be surmised that in the meantime existing old crusiers, destroyers, and submarines will be abolished in order.

"After the exchange of ratifications of the Naval Treaty, the Japanese Government contemplates to change the Maizura naval port into a secondary naval port, and to abolish the naval depot at Port Arthur to be replaced by a garrison. The men to be discharged from the abolition of warships and other vessels number about 1,200."

ARMY CUT BY 56,000 MEN

With regard to the reduction of land strength of Japan, the War Office has today published the following outline of readjustment.

"Twenty companies of infantry, 29 companies of cavalry, one battalion of horse artillery, 108 companies of field-artillery, and seven companies of engineers are to be reduced. Eight companies of mountain artillery, eight companies of field heavy-artillery and four companies of heavy artillery are to be increased.

"In connection with the above readjustment plan, 56,000 soldiers below non-commissioned officers and some 10,000 horses are to be saved. The term of military service is to be reduced by 40 days. This plan, it has been decided, will be enforced from August of the present year.

"The money thus saved by the 23rd Year of Taisho (1934) will amount to Yen 230,000,000 in ordinary military expenses, and Yen 29,000,000 in extraordinary expenses. After that, more than Yen 20,000,000 will be saved yearly in ordinary expenses and besides some Yen 3,000,000 be saved by some other means, thereby saving yearly a sum of upward of Yen 23,000,000."

Prison Sentence Given To Youth For Passing Bad Checks

J. Llewellyn, who is not registered in any Consulate was convicted yesterday in the Mixed Court on charges of having obtained goods by false pretenses and was sentenced to serve two months' imprisonment. Detective Sergeant Balchin who conducted the prosecution said the accused had bought four pairs of shoes at a Woosung Road shop and gave a worthless check in payment. Another bad check for $37 was found on his person when he was arrested. Llewellyn said he received the checks from a friend who is not now in Shanghai.

According to police testimony Llewellyn was the youth who raided the cloak room of the Union Church about a year ago and removed a number of mufflers and overcoats.

GIRL IN COURT FREED ON PLEA OF KLEPTOMANIA

Accused Young Woman Asserts She Was Not Responsible For Many Purchases

Miss B. W. Rowland, an adopted daughter of a Portuguese living at 9 Hon-Fok Terrace who was charged in the Mixed Court yesterday with having obtained goods fraudulently, was dismissed after testimony had been given indicating that she is a kleptomaniac.

Detective Sergt. Robertson, who arrested the girl, testified that she had had a delusion that all that was necessary to obtain goods was to order them and sign a check or a chit, despite the fact that she had no funds and no checking account. She was specifically charged with having obtained 28 postcards from the Nikko Photo Company, 91 Mingkong Road; tea and cakes from Marcels; a pair of shoes from Tajima & Company, 9b Bubbling Well Road; a hand bag from Sincere's; shoes from Anglo-Chinese Shoe Company, 16 Boone Road; 24 pairs of silk stockings from Chi Chang & Company, and furniture from Han Fei, 12 A Peking Road.

Miss Rowland told British Assessor Blackburn and Magistrate Yui that she did not know of some of the things she was alleged to have received.

"I didn't know what I was doing that time," she said when questioned concerning various articles she purchased with worthless checks. She explained that she had taken the checks from her stepbrother's check-book.

Assessor Blackburn questioned her closely concerning the furniture she bought on Peking Road. The facts in the case were that she had ordered the furniture, paid for it by check without receiving any change, and had ordered it sent to 31 Hart Road.

She admitted that she knew no one at that address, but could give the Assessor no reason why she gave that address.

"Why did you pick on 31 Hart Road?" Mr. Blackburn asked.

"I didn't know what I was doing that time," she replied.

The Court took cognisance of the fact that the girl was not wholly responsible for her acts, and ordered her released upon the signing of a good behavior bond.

"We can't have people running about Shanghai stealing things even if they are not responsible for their acts," Mr. Blackburn said," and so unless you stop this practice you will be brought in here again and then we will have to do something with you."

Crane Home, Says He Is In Dark As To Syrian Trouble

New York, June 10.—Charles R. Crane, who was reported to have been sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment by a French court martial in Syria for an offence about which he knows nothing, arrived last evening by the Cunarder Aquitania with his 13-year-old granddaughter Bruce, whose father is Richard Crane, retiring American Minister to Czecho-Slovakia.

Mr. Crane said he had had no unpleasant experiences with the French authorities of Syria while he was there; that he was not going to do anything about the matter; that he was going to his home in West Twelfth street and after staying there a while would take a summer vacation at his cottage in Wood's Hole, Mass., where he is president of the Marine Biological Laboratory.

Mr. Crane remarked that he had been several times in conversation with Dr. Shahbender, missionary and graduate of Beirut College, while at Damascus, and that later the doctor had been sentenced to fifteen years' imprisonment. It might have been, he thought, that this sentence was imposed on the doctor, a charming man, because he had been seen talking with Mr. Crane.

There had been great demonstrations in Damascus for the freedom of the Syrian people, said Mr. Crane, who did not seem to be at all contented.

Chinese Committee Nominees Presented To Municipal Council

Question Of Eligibility Is Raised Over One Of Five Named

Action by the Municipal Council upon a communication from the Chinese Chamber of Commerce nominating five members of the Chinese Advisory Committee to the Council has been deferred as the eligibility of one of the nominees to serve is questioned.

Four of the nominees already are members of the Advisory Committee, but the fifth, Mr. Jabin Hsu, named to take the place of Dr. David Yui, may not be qualified, according to the view of the Council, as stated in the current Municipal Gazette.

On this point a communication addressed to the Chinese Chamber by Mr. N. O. Liddell, Secretary and Commissioner General says, "I am directed to inform you that report has been made to the Council that Mr. Jabin Hsu holds an appointment as Adviser to the Board of Communications, and as one of the conditions laid down in the resolution passed at the Annual meeting of ratepayers in 1920 approving of the creation of the Chinese Advisory Committee was that the nominees should not at the time of nomination, or while on the Committee, hold any official appointment under the Chinese Government, I am directed to request that you may kindly inform the Council whether the report referred to is correct, and whether Mr. Hsu in fact holds any Government appointment."

The names of the four other nominees are Ziar Yung-sung, Sung Hang-chang, K. P. Chen and Y. H. Moh.

WILDE PLANS TRIP TO U. S. NEXT WINTER

British Flyweight Champ Will Again Contest For Title

SEEKS SHARKEY BOUT

Recovers From Injuries Sustained In Fall From Horse

Jimmy Wilde, the "mighty atom" who holds the British Flyweight championship, plans another visit to America next Winter, when he will mingle with any of the Yankee boxers able to make weight for him. This announcement, coming direct from London, does away with the reported retirement of the great little Welsh boxer.

Wilde has fully recovered from his fall from a horse that laid him up some weeks ago. He looks in excellent condition and says he weighs 112 pounds, but can still fight at 108.

Major Wilson, who promoted the Lewis-Carpentier match, said that Wilde wanted too much money to defend his title to make it feasible to bring American boxers to London to meet him, but Jimmy denied this. He says he will gladly box on a percentage basis if a suitable opponent can be found.

He would like to meet Jack Sharkey if the popular New Yorker can make under 118 pounds for him. Sharkey started on his way to fame and fortune by outpointing Wilde in a no-decision bout in the Middle West.

Sharkey was once offered $12,500 to meet Wilde in London and turned it down. He cannot get that now, but might get $5,000 and expenses to box Wilde.

Wilde says he would gladly have boxed Johnny Buff when the American champion was in London, but that Buff ran back to the States without giving the promoters a chance to figure on the contest.

Herman left a very bad impression behind him because of twice failing to make weight for lighter opponents in London. Herman, however, is regaining his standing and may be expected to figure in some interesting bouts shortly.

WILLARD'S FUTURE

While talk regarding another Jack Dempsey-Jess Willard championship is still being heard, a direct statement from the former champion as to his intentions is still to be had. In all he has said to date Willard has ducked a direct reply to the question "Will you fight Dempsey again?" When seen recently in Los Angeles where big Jess is now making his home he said:

"I have not seriously considered going back to the pugilistic business. At present I am kept pretty busy attending to my personal affairs and I have not had time to give the boxing game much thought."

The big Kansas rancher appeared to be in good physical condition. Some reports around the neighborhood where he has leased a house are to the effect that he has been training secretly. However, these could not be verified.

TWO SCRAPPERS TAKE UP OFFER MADE BY BOYLE

Nick Boyle, the ambitious young scrapper who recently came out with a challenge to meet anyone in Shanghai who would agree to weigh in within twenty pounds of his fighting weight of 135 pounds, is going to have his work cut out for him, if recent communications to THE CHINA PRESS are any indication.

Boyle, through the columns of this newspaper, issued an open challenge, saying that he had learned the game under the tutelage of Les Darcy and Jimmy Clabby in Australia and had been through battles with Elino Flores, Macario Villon and other well-known Filipino lightweights. He particularly sought an engagement with J. Chaney, of the Shanghai Boxing Club.

In reply, Chaney declares that he accepts Boyle's challenge and is willing to fight him at any time and in any place. Chaney would prefer to have it arranged for a fifteen round match of three minute rounds, or a twenty-round two-minute round affair.

Another acceptance of Boyle's challenge comes from Young Maher, whose manager, V. F. M. de Britto, 55 Range Road, writes:

"Young Maher, an untutored pugilist, amateur light and feather weight champion of Hongkong, lightweight champion of the Fifth Army Corps, B. E. F., and who fought Flores in Manila, P. I., to a draw, accepts Nick Boyle's challenge to meet him at 135 lbs. if given three weeks in which to get into form."

Apparently, all that is needed now is a local impressario to step in and stage the affair.

RACING TO BE REVIVED IN CHICAGO

Chicago.—Revival of thoroughbred racing in Illinois is practically assured if account is to be taken of the enthusiastic support the movement is receiving from industrial, social and civic leaders of Chicago and the State, according to an official of the recently organised Illinois Jockey Club.

With the formation of the club and the closing of leases on Hawthorne and Libertyville race courses many of the best known men and women of the State have directly interested themselves in "the sport of kings," and lovers of fast horses confidently look forward to a day in the near future when Illinois will rival the great day in Kentucky, when thousands visit Churchill Downs to see the great Derby.

W. O. Duntley is president of the club; August J. Fasking, retired capitalist and former wholesale dry goods merchant, is vice-president, and Frank E. Davidson, president Illinois Architects' Association, is treasurer.

Hundreds of merchants, society leaders, city and State officials have been canvassed for opinions and support of the plans of the Jockey Club, according to the secretary. All were of the belief the revival of clean racing in Illinois will be a progressive step in the history of the State and a timely antidote for the general depression of social and business conditions.

HURON NINE TO PLAY SHANGHAI OVER WEEK-END

Shanghai's feverish burst of baseball activity incidental to the visit here of the American Asiatic fleet in its entirety will come to a temporary halt this week-end, when what will probably be the last of the Navy games to be seen for a week or so will be staged on the Race Course grounds.

The U. S. S. Huron, which, with the Isabel, survived the general exodus of warcraft yesterday morning, will have its nine out on Saturday to meet Shanghai. The game is scheduled to start at 3 o'clock. A second game between the two teams will no doubt be arranged for Sunday.

The departure of the destroyer fleet for Chefoo yesterday leaves a big void in the baseball schedule. During their stay here, the destroyers managed to crowd in at least one game daily—and in some instances, three—when the weather man saw fit to turn off the faucet and call in Old Sol, and as a result, the season so far has been the biggest ever experienced in Shanghai.

The Huron, flagship of the fleet, is sailing on Monday for Nagasaki. There she will meet Secretary of the Navy Denby, and, it is presumed, return to Shanghai with him when he comes here July 17.

Singapore Rubber Auctions

Singapore, June 21, 1922

The tone of the London market has been dull with nothing doing during the past week. 7¼d. has again been touched for spot in London, but cables to hand this morning give quotations slightly up again at 7⅝d. to 7⅛d. New York is reported up to 15 cents. In the local market manufactures' representatives have begun to take an interest in buying for near delivery, and consequently our market has been very steady in spite of the decline in London.

At this week's auction 841 tons were put up for sale, of which 653 tons were offered and 532 tons sold.

Prices show an all-around advance on the week, and owing to some "shorts" covering the demand was good.

Awarded Standard Ribbed Smoked Sheet fetched 25 cents although only 24½ cents was bid on the first few catalogues. Later on this grade was easy of sale at the former figure.

Off Quality lots found buyers at fair prices.

The amount of interest taken in this grade and Crepe equal to Standard was fair.

Brown, Dark and Barky Crepes were wanted at slightly higher prices.

Harbour Notification
No. 14 of 1922.

Dredging Operations in Whangpoo River, Black Point Reach.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on or about the 14th of July the Whangpoo Conservancy Board will dredge in the Black Point Reach. Whenever the dredger is at work or is in a position for working in the Reach, symbols will be shown from a staff erected on the platform over the bucket gambler, or where they can best be seen, to indicate the dredger's position relative to the centre of the Channel as under:—

ONE DIAMOND: to show that the dredger is in the centre of the Channel.

ONE BALL: to show that she is in a position to the North of the centre.

TWO BALLS: to show that she is in a position to the South of the centre.

The dredgers are usually moored with six anchors, one ahead and one astern, and two breast anchors on each side. The positions of these anchors will generally be shown by small white painted cask buoys, but as these are likely to be carried away or swept under by the current, absolute reliance cannot be placed on their always being seen. The buoys will be moored with the shortest lengths of chain practicable.

Between sunset and sunrise the dredgers do not operate; they will then exhibit the usual anchor lights, in accordance with the International "Regulations for Preventing Collision at Sea."

The attention of navigators is drawn to Clause 16 of the Harbour Regulations for the Port of Shanghai which provides that:

"Vessels when passing conservancy works in course of construction or conservancy craft engaged in dredging, etc., shall proceed at a slow speed."

H. E. HILLMAN,
Harbour Master officiating.

Approved:
C. N. HOLWILL,
Deputy Commissioner in charge temporarily.

The "Allenburys" Milk-Food Chocolate

A dainty, nourishing confection of delicious flavour.

The "Allenburys" Milk-Food Chocolate presents essential nutritive constituents in combination with a chocolate of the highest purity. A complete food in concentrated form, it is digested and assimilated with ease. For children it is an excellent food-sweet, greatly to be preferred to the ordinary starches and sugars which affect the growing teeth and derange the digestion. It is also of great value to athletes, travellers, and in general when a nutritive stimulant is desired.

Hawaii's Delegate Asks Suspension Of Immigration Law

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, June 7.—Mr. Henry A. Baldwin, congressional delegate from Hawaii, appearing today before the Senate Immigration Committee, advocated adoption of the Dillingham resolution, which would authorise suspension by the President for five years of the immigration laws to meet any emergency, which develops from a labor shortage.

Mr. Baldwin declared, that, while the resolution was designed to relieve the present labor shortage by enabling the President to permit immigration of Chinese under certain restrictions, its principle effect would be to check the growth of what he described as the menace of Japanese industrial and political control in the island.

Hankow Japanese Are Apprehensive

(Independent News Service)

Hankow, July 2.—The Japanese community of Hankow, men, women and children, turned out in full force on the Japanese Bund this morning to bid farewell to the Japanese garrison, that evacuated Hankow and departed for Japan on board the Japanese Marine Transport Fukoka Maru. Seven hundred khaki-clad Japanese soldiers with their machine guns and equipment left the river front of the Japanese Concession amidst cheering and shouting, while firecrackers added to the din.

Major-General Okudaira, Commander of the Japanese Army, Major Kawahara, Commander of the Battalion, and other officers assembled on the Japanese Bund to make their farewell bows to Mr. A. Segawa, Japanese Consul-General, and representatives of various Japanese interests in Hankow. The parting ceremony took place in front of an electric pailou decorated with flags of Japan specially erected to celebrate the departure of the Japanese garrison.

In reviewing the history of the Japanese barracks and garrisons in Hankow, this morning's Hankow Jih Pao says that during the 1911 Revolution in Wuchang the Japanese government despatched garrisons to Hankow to protect Japanese interests, which was followed by the arrival of British and Russian detachments. "Viewing it from the unsettled conditions and frequent disturbances in China, we cannot tell whether this evacuation is advisable or not," comments the Japanese paper. This feeling of insecurity after the withdrawal is generally voiced in various Japanese quarters in Hankow.

Tokio Discusses Bandit Question

(Eastern News Agency)

Tokio, July 4.—At the official residence of Premier Kato today, a Cabinet meeting was held with the Premier and all Cabinet Ministers present, when Count Uchida, Minister of Foreign Affairs made a report relating to the rampancy of mounted bandits in the region of Chientao and then they deliberated upon relief-measures in connection therewith and upon other important domestic and foreign affairs.

New Pope Regrets He Didn't See U.S.

(China Press Service)

Rome, July 3.—Pope Pius XI harbors at least one deep regret and that is his failure to visit the New World before his elevation to the Holy See.

"I was so anxious to visit the United States, Brazil and Argentina," he said recently. "But I thought I had plenty of time. I never dreamed that I would be elected Pope."

Diplomats and ecclesiastical dignitaries are playing an important part in the new Pontiff's efforts to familiarise himself with the affairs of his church in every land. Cardinals are usually accorded interviews lasting two hours or more, while ambassadors are seldom dismissed before they have spent an hour with the Pope.

"He is evidently feeling his way and trying to understand the complicated machinery in all its parts," said one ambassador, as he left the Vatican offices. "It is quite a striking contrast to Pope Benedict, who used to go straight to the heart of the subject in hand and exhaust it in a few moments."

His sympathetic attitude toward the American continents has encouraged Latin American representatives of the Catholic church to hope for an increase in the number of Cardinals allotted them, Senor de Azoredo, Brazilian Ambassador to the Vatican, has pointed out to the new Pope that the United States, smaller in area and with a smaller Catholic population than Brazil's, has two Cardinals while Brazil has but one.

One of the chief objections to granting Cardinals in Latin-America brought forward in the past is that the Sacred College cannot exceed 70 members, and that the Pope, following traditional law, must leave a few vacancies to be filled by his successor. This argument is controverted by Senor Azaredo on the ground that the present limitation to 70 Cardinals was established nearly 400 years ago, when no one could forsee the development of the American continents.

DISTRESS AFTER MEALS

Some people, however careful in their diet, suffer after each meal because the stomach is weak and the food lies undigested.

Tone up the stomach and this trouble quickly disappears as is shown by the experience of Mrs. Nettie Ainsworth, of No. 81 Elm street, Montpelier, Vt. This American lady says:

"I became run down through overwork and suffered a complete nervous breakdown. My stomach distressed me after meals and I was in misery from flatulency and gas. I tossed about, sleepless, at night and was steadily losing strength and weight.

"A friend who had taken Dr. Williams' Pink Pills following an attack of pneumonia recommended the treatment to me and I decided to give the remedy a trial. I took seven bottles in all and was completely restored to health. My nervousness disappeared and I now sleep well and eat without distress. I can't speak too highly of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I owe my present health to them."

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Also obtainable post free at $1.50 per bottle, $8 for six bottles direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Heavy Rains In Osaka And Tokio

(Nihon Dempo Agency)

Osaka, July 3.—Since yesterday evening, at 8 o'clock Osaka has been visited by a torrent of rain without interval until twelve o'clock today. The rainfall reached 35.5 millimeters (1.4 inches). Several hundred houses are submerged.

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, July 5.—After the prolonged drought there have been very heavy rains during the past few days which have caused floods in many places in South-Western Japan, especially in Northern Kyushu. Railway traffic has been interrupted in some places and many houses have been inundated.

"NUGGET NELL"

Nellie was lady. She didn't give a darn who knew it! And if clothes could help, she was out to get'em with a gun.

But after a succession of startling hold-ups (and take-offs) that will make your eyes pop; after nifty Nell has saved the old stage coach and the young hero, and "licked" an army of bloody bandits, and everything; and after you have laughed yourself hoarse at this yip-yowling burlesque travesty on the Wild and Movie West—you'll say that Dorothy Gish is of the funniest she-hero that ever captured a man.

See Nellie capture that wardrobe. See her route a band of bloody bandits, save her Romeo from his just deserts, and prove herself the greatest she-hero that ever graced the plains!

Lord Northcliffe "Incognito In Germany"

Following is one of a series of articles, "Incognito in Germany," by Viscount Northcliffe, which will describe his recent trip through Germany, which he toured in order to "get the facts" on the republic's present condition. The first story takes Lord Northcliffe across the Belgian border and into the Rhineland. The second will be published at an early date. This article was written in London June 9:

BY VISCOUNT NORTHCLIFFE

SOME little time ago I announced at a gathering of Australasians in London my intention of going to Germany.

I had more than one reason for making the announcement at that time.

The chief reason was that, as my remarks would be telegraphed to Germany, they would, I realized, bring me into touch with a number of Germans whom I knew before the war, and of whom I had not heard since the war.

The immediate results of the announcement were the usual abusive letters and postcards which the British postmaster permits to pass, and violent diatribes in German newspapers, especially the formerly great Koelnische Zeitung. This was the sort of thing written in the well known Der Mittag:

"This man is not coming to Germany to establish the truth and afterward proclaim it in England, but to forge and collect new weapons against us. In him we are not dealing with an honorable man. If he came to us we should shut the door in his face."

I am well aware that the German newspapers' bark is often ferocious, and the German himself, when properly tackled, is quite different in tone.

Nevertheless, acting on the advice of former German acquaintances who came to meet me at a Dutch town, I was cautious about my movements in Germany, and, naturally, I didn't use my own name.

On my way I paid a visit to Ypres, Vimy Ridge and the terrible regions of Lens. Eventually I came to Brussels.

There is an inclination in the public mind to exaggerate the amount of damage done in Belgium by the Germans. Any student of war knows that the Germans did comparatively little damage in Belgium compared to the devastations in France. The Germany army lived in Belgium for years and spent money there, and I say without hesitation that Belgium is now the most prosperous country I have seen since I left New Zealand. The people work unceasingly and deserve their prosperity.

At Louvain I said good-by to the first list of my German acquaintances, and with a solitary companion in a rented motor car pushed on to Holland where, after more meetings with former acquaintances, we made for the German frontier.

My recollections were of the old German customs house, of which the British motorists, in the last year before the war, were terrified. What did I find? An elegant young man in a very handsome green uniform, doing about like a Fifth avenue policeman on a sunny morning when the girls are looking at him. He didn't take the trouble to look at the passport at all, but simply saluted us in answer to our salute.

The particular road by which I entered Germany was lonely, but very beautiful. I doubt whether I have ever seen in a mass so many miles of white and pink horsechestnut trees in bloom as on that day.

Now and then we passed through thriving villages where we got out and stretched our legs. The principal feature of the landscape was the women, in an interesting condition. I have never seen them in such profusion and so proud of their state. My companion said, "Since the abolition of the army the young men have been told to come home and populate. They are certainly carrying out their duty."

Nor have I, except in Japan and Russia, seen so many children beautifully cared for, all, and in better dresses than I ever remember them. Little shops in the villages were filled with good things. New houses were going up everywhere.

The Rhinelanders are a polite people, and many gave me a salute and a passing remark on that day. I had a talk with one of the master builders on the way. He spoke English and was not in the least offensive.

"We cannot build houses fast enough," he told me.

I said: "I congratulate you on your prosperity." To which he replied:

"The building trades of Germany never had such vitality as at the present moment. The only drawback is that we cannot get sufficient bricks and other materials. The manufacturers are all overworked, and we are in their hands."

He was pleased when I pointed out that the houses were beautifully built. On leaving he offered me his card—an enormous one. I risked the experiment of returning mine. He looked at me sharply, but not at all offensively.

"Northcliffe—Northcliffe?" he said. "But you're no friend of Germany!"

I said: "I warned England and Germany that the war was coming. I warned Germany that the Americans were going to come—and they wouldn't believe it. I have often spoken well of the Germans' bravery, of their machine gunners and of their wonderful, though detestable, feat of flying to London in the machines which we now know to have been more dangerous than we thought against the enemy.

"I have come to Germany to try to help and to get the facts."

"Well," he said, "after all the war has been finished a long time."

He offered his hand, but because I don't shake hands with Germans we both clicked our heels and bowed, and he went back to his task—his fortune making. He had forgotten me at once, of that I felt sure.

Don't Neglect Your Family.

When you fail to provide your family with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy at this season of the year, you are neglecting them, as bowel Complaint is sure to be prevalent, and it is too dangerous a malady to be trifled with. This is especially true if there are children in the family. A dose or two of this remedy will place the trouble within control and perhaps save a life, or at least a doctor's bill. Sold Everywhere.

Progress Of Italian Railroads

Rome, (By Mail).—The ninth congress of the International Association of Railways was recently held at Rome, and many engineers representing American railroads, who have been allowed to travel free throughout Italy for two months, are able to note the rapid progress of Italian railway lines. The mileage of these lines has increased from 11,203 kilometers in 1886 to 20,667 kilometers in 1920, of which about 16,000 kilometers are operated by the government and the remaining 4,000 by private companies.

This increase has been despite the fact that railway development often meets grave difficulties in Italy due to the mountainous nature of the country, which often necessitates the construction of great viaducts and the boring of many tunnels. For instance, aside from the well known Alpine tunnels (Simplon, Gothard and Cenisio) there are many others, such as the Giovi, in the Ligurian Appenines, about 8,300 meters long, with a grade of about 35 meters in a thousand.

The deficit of the state railways for the fiscal year 1920-'21 was about 1,046,000,000 lire. Revenues were 3,251,000,000 lire and expenditures 4,297,000,000. Of the expenditures, about 26 percent went for fuel, etc., and 51 percent for salaries and wages. The director general of the state railways declared at the congress that all his efforts were being directed toward the reduction of expenses so that the deficit might be cut down and freight rates reduced.

STATE RAILWAYS DEFICIT

During the first six months of 1921 the state railways, which have a special fuel purchasing office at New York, placed orders for 381,127 tons of coal in the United States; in the same period 324,047 tons were bought in England, and from Germany, on account of war indemnities, 1,227,306 tons were received. Of the coal purchased in the United States, 91,898 tons were delivered f. o. b. American ports and shipped to Italy in Italian steamers, and 62,569 tons on foreign steamers. The remaining amount was delivered c. i. f. Italian ports by American companies, 219,844 being shipped in foreign bottoms, and 6,816 in Italian ships.

During the fiscal year the average price per ton fluctuated considerably, rising 493.20 lire in July, 1920, to 728 lire in November of the same year, and falling to 307 lire in June, 1921. The director of railways stated at the congress that during the year the continued experiments with liquid fuel but had lately been obliged to abandon its use because of the high price of naptha.

In the 1920-'21 financial period, the state railways burned 4,833,000 kilograms of naptha.

DISCOUNT BANK LIQUIDATION

The new Banca Nazionale di Credito has been formed and will proceed to the liquidation of the Banch Italiana di Sconto to satisfy creditors at the rate of 58 or 65 percent of their claims at various stated dates fixed by law, and in no case later than December 31, 1923. The new bank has a liquid capital of 250,000,000 lire, entirely paid up, and can be increased in 1922 by another 150,000,000 lire.

The administrators are all creditors of the B. I. S. No doubt the task of the new bank will be arduous. About 3,000,000,000 lire of dubious credits must be liquidated. A very small part of the old bank's staff is to be dismissed, and therefore the general expenses for the first financial year will be rather heavy, and probably at first only the creditors interested in the development of the new bank will make large deposits. However, the direct supervision of the banks of issue is a guarantee for the public and it has already been arranged that at the beginning the bank will carefully limit its operations to discounting bills at short notice and on first class security only.

The cinema industry has reached during the last few years great proportions in Italy. Historic subjects are especially favored and the industry has a great advantage in the magnificent Italian landscapes. Several hundred millions of lire in capital have already been invested in this industry, which employs about one thousand first rate artists, two thousand secondary, two thousand "supers," six thousand experts and laborers, as well as the occasional masses required, and fifty thousand cinema theater employes. The yearly length of films produced is calculated at about 1,600,000 meters. Quite recently two factories for the manufacture of raw films were started, but the results were not satisfactory, and Italian manufacturers, fearing the competition of foreign firms (especially the Eastman Kodak Company), have asked an increase in the duty. American pictures are in great favor.

From the recent census figures the following data has been collected by the government regarding the number of Italians residing in various foreign countries. These amount to 7,500,000, which, added to the 38,500,000 inhabitants of the kingdom, makes a total of over 46,000,000 Italian population. According to the preceding census, taken in 1910, about 4,500,000 Italians resided in the American states (United States, Brazil, Argentine). In the United States Italians were more numerous in the states of New York and Pennsylvania. Next came New Jersey, Massachusetts, Illinois, California and Connecticut.

IODISED THROAT TABLETS Allay all Irritation

THE General Public is hereby notified that supplies of "IXL" IODISED THROAT TABLETS, the remarkable new throat remedy that is now being so largely and successfully prescribed by physicians in Great Britain, are now being made available for residents in China.

Representing the latest advance in scientific throat medication, these tablets, by reason of their Iodine content, are indubitably superior to any other pastilles or tablets that have yet been evolved by scientific research.

Their use is positively indicated in all cases of Sore and Ulcerated Throat, Hoarseness, Quinsy, Throat Catarrh, Tonsilitis, Laryngitis, etc.

As a highly efficient throat disinfectant when epidemics are rife, IODISED THROAT TABLETS indoubtedly excel any other preparation yet put upon the market.

No malignant Diptheria, Influenza, or other germ can find lodgement on a membranous surface that has been subjected to the peculiar antiseptic influences of these tablets.

Pleasant to the palate, and allaying all irritation, each tablet, as it slowly dissolves in the mouth, releases, in harmonious combination with other fine quality medicaments, a specific quantity of the pure Tincture of Iodine, to soothe, heal, and sterilize the inflamed area.

WARNING:—All carbons of the genuine and original IODISED THROAT TABLETS bear the "IXL" trade-mark, and each tablet is embossed with the letter "A." Reject feeble substitutes.

"Began to think she would never get well."

Our Portrait is of Miss FLORRIE ORGAN, of 100, Clark Street, Ladywood, Birmingham, England, whose father writes:

"My daughter Florrie was suffering with a very bad head covered with Sores and Eruptions, and in fact her mother was afraid to comb her hair. She had been under several doctors, but all to no purpose, so I began to think she would never get well again and lose all her hair. As your 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' cured me of Glandular Swellings in the Neck some years ago, and so averted my having to undergo an operation, I decided to give 'Clarke's Blood Mixture' a fair trial in the case of my daughter, and I am pleased to say it effected a wonderful cure in just over a fortnight."

SUFFERERS from Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Glandular Swellings, Piles, Eczema, Boils, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Eruptions, Rheumatism, Gout, should realise that lotions and ointments can but give temporary relief; to be sure of complete and lasting benefit the blood must be thoroughly cleansed of the impure waste matter the root cause of such troubles. Clarke's Blood Mixture quickly attacks, overcomes and expels the impurities; that is why so many remarkable recoveries stand to its credit. Pleasant to take, and free from injurious ingredients.

A Love Test By Proxy

BY PAUL GAULOT

Sylvain Dubayet had inherited from his parents a country estate which was fairly productive and which guaranteed him a comfortable existence, free from cares. At twenty-nine he kept saying to himself that he couldn't always live alone and that he ought to marry. But, being distrustful and timid, and fearing that he might fall into the hands of a wife who was cross-grained or extravagant, he postponed from day to day the decision to take one. So he was much upset when he learned that a distant cousin had left him a hundred thousand francs on condition that he should marry Mlle. Colette Barlier, daughter of a gentleman farmer.

What a singular idea this relative had had. But, in spite of the disturbance caused in his hitherto peaceful life, Sylvain was not insensible to the value of the bequest, which would permit him to enlarge his own estate and would be otherwise highly advantageous. Nevertheless the prospect of compulsory marriage was thoroughly displeasing to him.

His hesitation would doubtless have been prolonged if he had not received a letter from M. Barlier, who, in cordial and simple terms, invited Sylvain to visit him. Realising the necessity of this preliminary step, the young man started off one fine day in June.

Nervous about a visit whose importance his shyness exaggerated, he slowed up his steps as he approached the house. But, however measured his gait, he arrived at last at the outer gate, and, seeing it open, decided to penetrate into the court. A big dog ran toward him, barking. He was about to beat a retreat when a young girl appeared at the house door. She wore a white apron, had her sleeves rolled back and held in her hands a bowl of dough.

"Be quiet, Medor!" she called to the dog.

Then, addressing the visitor: "What is it you wish, monsieur?"

"I have come to see M. Barlier. I am Sylvain Dubayet."

"M. Barlier isn't home," she said; "but won't you please come in and wait for him, while I go on with my work?"

He obeyed mechanically, entered, took a seat and watched the young girl.

"You will excuse me," she said.

"It is I who must excuse myself," he answered. Then he asked:

"Are you the servant?"

She lifted her head, smiled and said, after a few seconds' hesitation:

"As you see. And you are the heir?"

"You know about it?"

"They have certainly talked enough about it."

The opportunity seemed good.

"What does Mlle. Barlier say?"

"This thing, that thing. She seems very well satisfied. Why shouldn't she be?"

"Is she fond of money?"

"Rather. When one is young and coquettish one loves clothes."

"In the country one doesn't have many opportunities to wear fine clothes."

"Evidently. So I believe she dreams of living in the city."

"Living in the city? Does she expect to have all her wishes satisfied?"

"My faith, I should be sorry for the man who didn't let her have her way. When she has an idea in her head everything must give way to it. It isn't that she is bad at bottom, but her character is capricious. Perhaps I am wrong to tell you these things?"

"Not at all, you are doing me a service."

"Maybe, maybe not. Suppose that what I have said should deter you from marrying her."

"You don't know me," he answered with feeling. "If it were necessary to purchase the inheritance by marrying a girl who is coquettish, extravagant and self-willed I would renounce it right away."

"That's fine," cried the young girl in so convincing a tone that Sylvain was astonished.

"What did you say?"

"I said: 'That's fine.' You see, the kneading is finished and the cake will be good. You will enjoy eating it."

"I shall not eat it, and I am sorry. But I think I'd better go."

He started for the door.

"No," she cried. "You mustn't go away like that. Wait, at least, till my father comes."

"Your father?"

"Yes. Don't you understand?" And with a little forced laugh, which covered her embarrassment, she added:

"I am Colette Barlier."

Amazed at this unexpected revelation, Sylvain didn't know what to think or to say.

But she began very seriously.

"I owe you an explanation. When I learned the condition which my godfather attached to the inheritance I had a strange feeling. It was distasteful to me to see in you a suitor ready to marry me solely because I represented in his eyes a hundred thousand francs. I intended to make myself as disagreeable as possible when you came. This accidental meeting and your misunderstanding gave me the idea of putting you to a test at the start. And you have no reason to complain, since I have thus been able to establish your disinterestedness. That is not to say that we shall marry. We must know each other better before binding ourselves for life. Do you think I shall suit you?"

"As to that, yes," cried Sylvain, who had listened with delight to the pretty girl's remarks. But he added with a sigh:

"I, too, on my side, must please you. And I hardly dare to hope."

"Try to," she murmured.

There was so much tenderness in the smile which accompanied these words that he saw in it even more than encouragement—almost a promise. His face beamed with joy.

"It is agreed? You will stay?"

"Yes, mademoiselle."

CASTORIA
for Infants and Children.
Don't Poison Baby.
FORTY YEARS AGO almost every mother thought her child must have paregoric or laudanum to make it sleep. These drugs will produce sleep, and a few drops too many will produce the sleep from which there is no waking. Many are the children who have been killed or whose health has been ruined for life by paregoric, laudanum and morphine, each of which is a narcotic product of opium. Druggists are prohibited from selling either of the narcotics named to children at all, or to anybody without labeling them "poison." The definition of "narcotic" is: "A medicine which relieves pain and produces sleep, but which in poisonous doses produces stupor, coma, convulsions and death." The taste and smell of medicines containing opium are disguised, and sold under the names of "Drops," "Cordials," "Soothing Syrups," etc. You should not permit any medicine to be given to your children unless you or your physician know of what it is composed. Castoria does not contain narcotics.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

July 5, 1922

Spot and forward bar silver were each up ⅛d. in London yesterday.

As there was a holiday in New York, no quotation has been received from there, but the London-New York cross rate as cabled from London, is 443⅞.

The only changes in our official quotations here today were a rise in the Gold Dollar rate to 79½, in the Franc rate to 960, and a drop in the Rupee rate to 271⅝.

During the course of the early morning a fair amount of business in Sterling was done at 3-7⅛ for all deliveries up to September, and in Gold Dollars at 79⅝ for the same deliveries.

As, however, Chinese were again quite strong buyers today, banks lowered their selling rates, until at the close there were no sellers of Sterling at better than 3-7, and in Gold Dollars at 79⅝.

There were a few Gold Dollar bills on the market which were placed at 81¼, and Franc bills at 990.

There was little demand other than that from speculators for remittance.

London report their silver market as steady, with China and India buying.
